

Because of you, personal peace becomes possible for domestic violence survivors and their children

The dollars you donate provide survivors living in Duval and Baker counties with the shelter and wrap-around services they need to find safety and start over. For one survivor, this may mean staying in shelter and receiving a complement of support services; for another, counseling may be enough. For all the survivors served, personal peace becomes possible, maybe for the first time.

A Survivor's Journey

“My first night at Hubbard House, I cried all night long. I cried because I was hurting and frightened about the future. But now, I’m on my own. I feel safe. And, I don’t have to cry anymore.”

For you and for us, it's all about the survivors

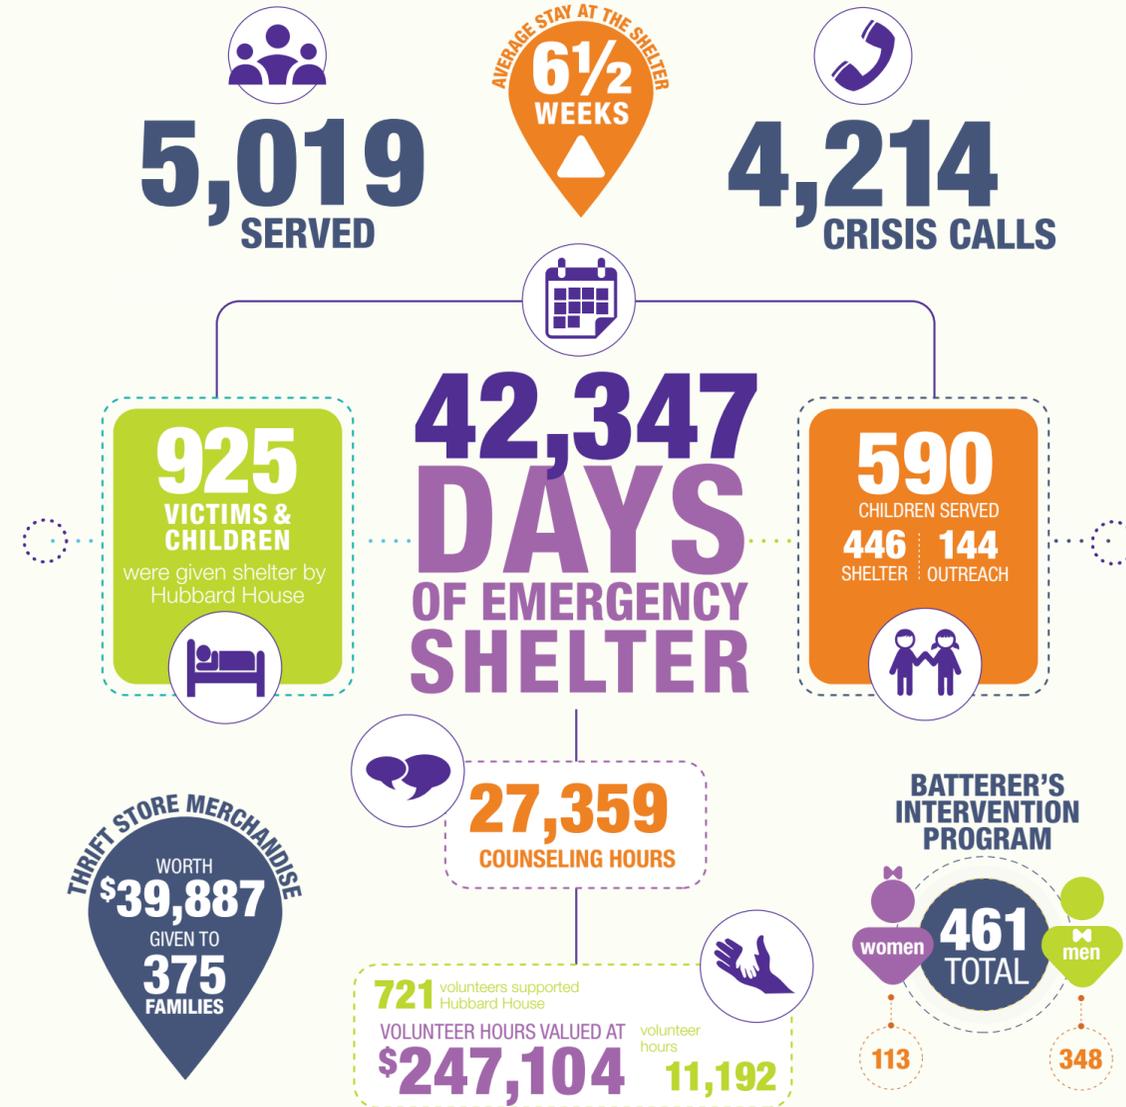

Every day at Hubbard House, strengthened by your generous support, we attune our emergency shelter and wrap-around services toward the realization of our three-fold mission:

- To help domestic violence survivors and their children find safety.
- To support survivors escaping life-threatening abuse on their journeys of personal empowerment and freedom.
- To work for social change that makes the community a safer place for more of us, which makes the community place a better place for all of us.

How do we measure the impact of our partnership with you? Suffering spared, lives liberated and tragic deaths avoided right here in Jacksonville.

Thanks to you thousands of survivors are receiving life-changing and life-saving shelter and services
